Emoji Quiz and Reading Comprehension

Emojis are small pictures that we use in our text messages. They show how the writer is feeling at every moment during the conversation. Everybody has a special emoji they use in all situations. Take this quiz and discover which emoji represents you best!

Circle the answers you agree with.

1. You're going on holiday! Where are you going?
   - A. A sunny beach with beautiful sunsets.
   - B. Visiting my family and friends — I don't mind the place.
   - C. A funfair with lots of fun activities and rides.
   - D. A house in the mountains to relax and get away from the routine.

2. What's your favourite plan for a Saturday evening?

   A. Watching a film or series and eating some popcorn. That's always the best plan!

   B. Going to a concert with my friends and singing our favourite songs together.

   C. Trying a new activity, like a new sport or an escape room. I don't like to repeat the same plans!

   D. I love spending time with myself. Maybe reading a book or doing a puzzle with a cup of tea.

3. Your friend is feeling a bit sad. What do you do?

   A. I run to their house and give them a big hug. I have to be there when my friends need me!

   B. I tell them jokes and we remember funny stories to make them happy.

   C. I tell all my friends to come to their house and we organise a big party to forget all the problems!

   D. I talk to them and we try to find solutions to their problems.

4. Imagine you're writing a book. What is it about?

   A. A story about love and drama.

   B. A comedy full of funny moments and stories.

   C. An exciting adventure book with lots of surprises and action.

   D. A mystery book about a crime.

5. What makes you happiest?

   A. Helping my friends and seeing them smile.

   B. Having a great time with my friends and family. Laughing makes me happy.

   C. Trying new things: activities, food, travelling to different places...

   D. Learning new things and having time for myself.

Let's look at your responses. Count how many of each letter you got.
