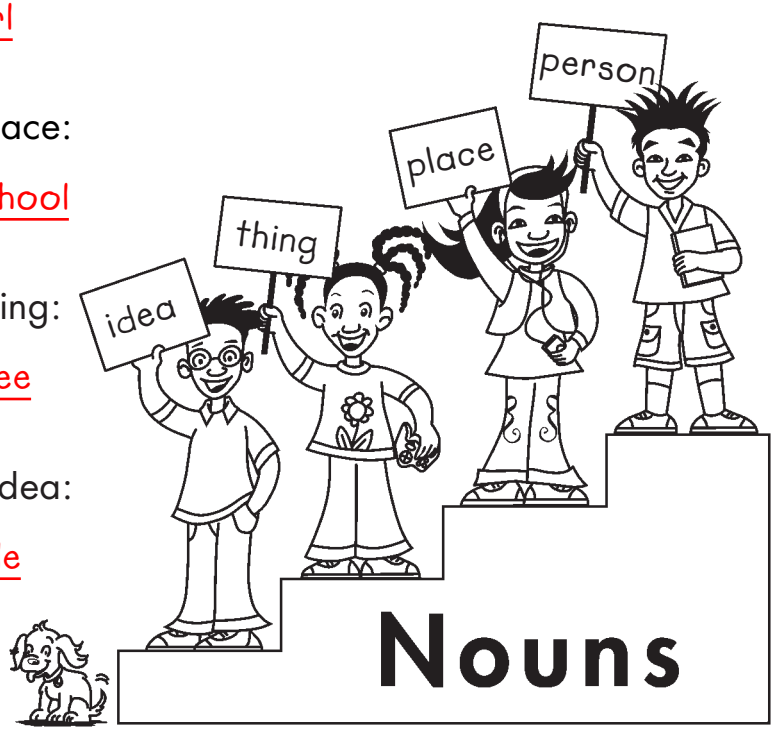
Nouns

A noun is a word that names a person, place, thing, or idea.

A noun is a word that names:

1. a person:
   girl
2. a place:
   school
3. a thing:
   tree
4. an idea:
   rule



© Learning A–Z All rights reserved.

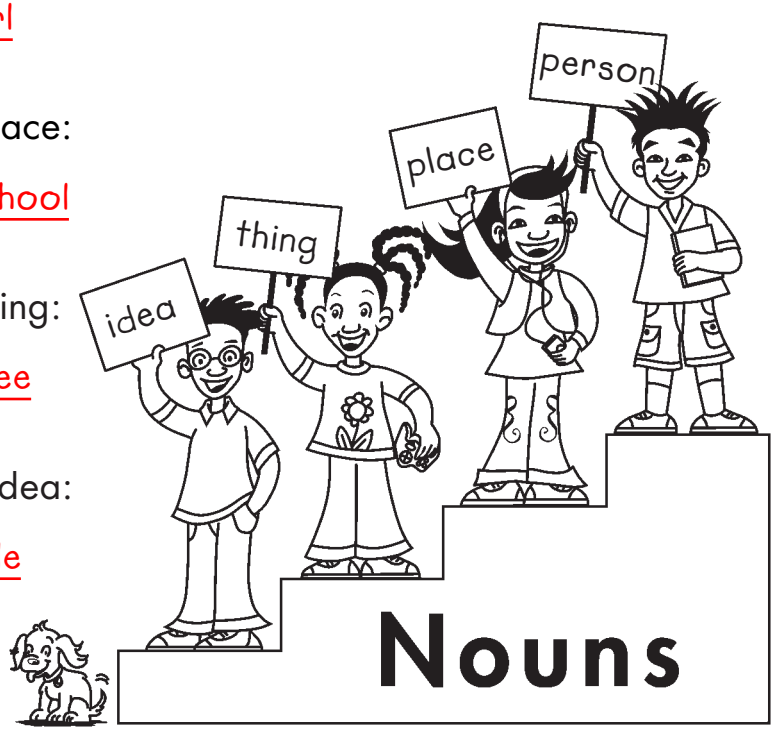
Daily Language Practice
Learning Guide
Week 1
Set 2

Nouns

A noun is a word that names a person, place, thing, or idea.

A noun is a word that names:

1. a person:
   girl
2. a place:
   school
3. a thing:
   tree
4. an idea:
   rule



© Learning A–Z All rights reserved.

Articles

Articles are words that come before nouns.
There are three articles: a, an, and the.

1. Use a before a nonspecific noun that begins with a consonant sound.

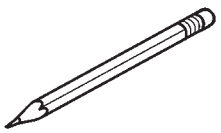
   a backpack

2. Use an before a nonspecific noun that begins with a vowel sound.

   an answer

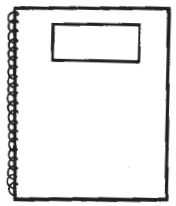
3. Use the before a specific person, place, thing, or idea.

   the bus to school



a pencil

an apple



the notebook for class

© Learning A–Z All rights reserved.

Daily Language Practice
Learning Guide
Week 1
Set 2

Articles

Articles are words that come before nouns.
There are three articles: a, an, and the.

1. Use a before a nonspecific noun that begins with a consonant sound.

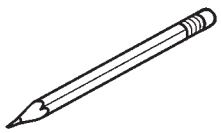
   a backpack

2. Use an before a nonspecific noun that begins with a vowel sound.

   an answer

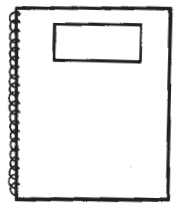
3. Use the before a specific person, place, thing, or idea.

   the bus to school



a pencil

an apple



the notebook for class

© Learning A–Z All rights reserved.

Reading A-Z
www.readinga-z.com